3. Arbitrator of Nanping Court of International Arbitration

Experience in arbitration and mediation/ ADR

In my 20 years of experience as an arbitrator, whether as the presiding arbitrator, Co-arbitrator or sole arbitrator, I can take each case seriously and carefully review the case materials before the hearing to understand the parties' claims and the facts on which they are based. Guide the parties to state the facts related to the case in the trial, and quickly seize the focus of the dispute through the debate between the parties; After a court hearing, it shall be able to make an award in a timely manner according to the facts ascertained and the relevant legal provisions.

When the arbitration institution solicits expert opinions on difficult cases, I can review the materials of difficult cases in a timely manner, read through a large number of similar cases, and put forward objective professional opinions based on the existing evidence and in accordance with legal principles and laws.
